

FTSE BURSA MALAYSIA ASIAN PALM OIL PLANTATION INDEX

The FTSE Bursa Malaysia Asian Palm Oil Plantation Index has been designed to provide easy access to investors who wish to participate in Asia's burgeoning palm oil industry. This Asian index aims to capture the performance of companies that earn a substantial proportion of their revenue from palm oil activities. Palm oil activities include production, ownership or operation of palm oil and palm oil plantations.

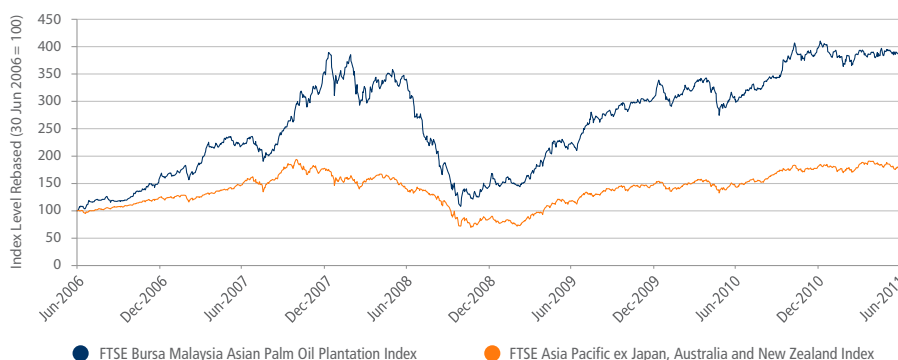

Screening Highlights:

- Only companies that have a market capitalisation of greater than USD 100 million are eligible to be included in the index
- To be included in the index a company is required to have greater than 30% of total revenue from palm oil related activities
- Existing constituents will no longer be eligible if total revenue from palm oil related activities falls below 20%
- For a country to be eligible in the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Asian Palm Oil Plantation Index, its companies aggregated together must have an index weighting of greater than 2%

FEATURES

- The eligible universe comprises: China – B Shares, H Shares, and Red Chips, Hong Kong SAR, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan and Thailand
- The index has been designed for the creation of structured products, index tracking funds and exchange traded funds (ETFs) or can be used as a performance benchmark
- Together with the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Palm Oil Plantation Index, this index forms part of the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Index Series
- Stocks are capped at 18% on a quarterly basis to avoid over-concentration of any one stock
- Both gross and net of tax indices are available
- Free float screening is in line with the FTSE Global Equity Index Series to ensure that only the investable opportunity set is included within the index
- Liquidity screening is based on the methodology used in the FTSE Global Equity Index Series median liquidity rule
- Deletions may occur intra-review where companies are either delisted, subject to take over, or cease to be an eligible constituent
- Capital and total return indices are available
