

FTSE BURSA MALAYSIA HIJRAH SHARIAH INDEX

The FTSE Bursa Malaysia Hijrah Shariah Index has been designed to be used as the basis of Shariah-compliant investment products that meet the screening requirements of international Islamic investors. Companies in the index are screened by the Malaysian Securities Commission's Shariah Advisory Council (SAC) and the leading global Shariah consultancy, Yasaar Ltd, against a clear set of guiding principles.

FTSE BURSA MALAYSIA HIJRAH SHARIAH INDEX SCREENING METHODOLOGY

Constituents in the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Hijrah Shariah Index are required to meet the principles set out by the Malaysian Securities Commission's Shariah Advisory Council (SAC), and by Yasaar Ltd to ensure that they are not involved in any of the following core activities:

- Banking or any other interest related activity, such as lenders and brokerages, but excluding Islamic financial institutions
- Alcohol
- Tobacco
- Gaming
- Arms manufacturing
- Life insurance
- Pork and non-halal food production, packaging and processing or any other activity related to pork and non-halal food

Companies that have the following criteria are also not included in the index:

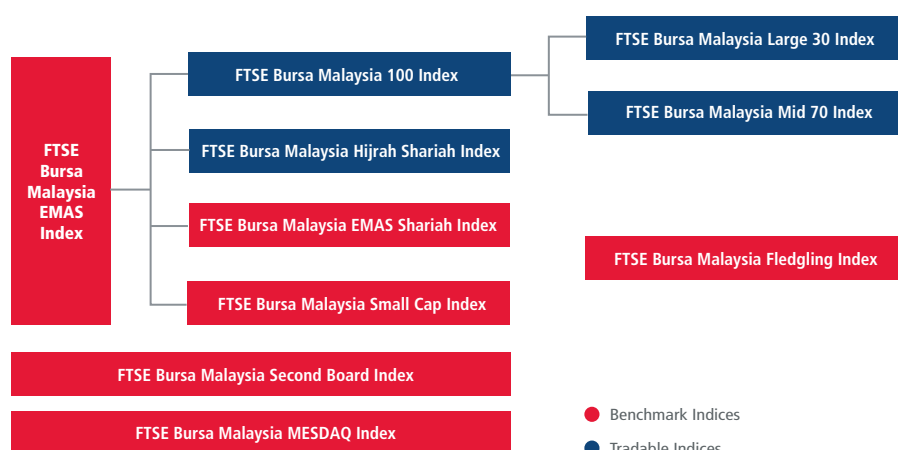

- Companies whose ratios of debt and debt service in combination are unacceptable and indicative of an inappropriate use of leverage relative to their assets
- Companies that have income from cash or near cash equivalents or inappropriate levels of receivables to assets, the metrics by which stocks are included or excluded are designed to be in keeping with Islamic Shariah principles and commonly accepted philosophies
- Companies whose liquid assets to illiquid assets exceeds the percentage permitted under Shariah principles and commonly accepted philosophies
- Companies whose cash and cash equivalent to total assets exceeds the percentage permitted under Shariah principles and commonly accepted philosophies

This list is not exhaustive and it is produced as a basic guidance to the broad principles involved. Further details on the SAC can be obtained from the Securities Commission's website: www.sc.com.my, and further details on Yasaar can be obtained from Yasaar's website: www.yasaar.org
