

Best World International (Singapore): Stock Suspension Update Treatment in FTSE Indices

02 August 2019

Further to the notice issued on 05 July 2019 regarding the suspension of Best World International (Singapore, BD370L9), it remains suspended from trading pending investigations into the accuracy of the company's announcement.

In conjunction with Section 4.18 Suspended Companies of the FTSE Russell Corporate Actions and Events Guide, if the suspension period reaches 60 business days the constituent will be removed from the index at zero value at the next index review, subject to the 60th business day of suspension falling on or before the Friday four weeks prior to the index review implementation date.

Therefore, Best World International is expected to be removed at zero value at the index review in September 2019, if it does not resume trading two weeks prior to the September review effective date (i.e. on or before 06 September 2019).

FTSE will continue to monitor the case and review the company's eligibility for index inclusion pending further information.
