

Suspended Companies - Quarterly Deletion December 2019 Update

06 December 2019

Further to the FTSE notice regarding the quarterly deletions due to prolonged suspensions released on 22 November 2019, affected constituents which resume their trading in advance of the index review lock-down period (i.e. on or before 6 December 2019) will be retained in the index. Consequently, please find the updated list of affected constituents which can be accessed via the link below.

Subject to the trading status of the affected constituents before its planned removal date on Monday 23 December 2019, FTSE Russell will apply the following treatment:

- 1) If the constituent resumes trading on or before Friday 20 December 2019, it will continue to be removed from the index but it may be implemented at market price.
- 2) If the company continues to be suspended on Friday 20 December 2019, it will be deleted from the index at zero value.
